MISSING

Time is turning
a page in our lives,
and we will experience
new things that will open our eyes.
Leaving family and friends
for a life of our own.
To prove to the world that we've finally grown.
But let us never forget
where it all began,
with a little speck called
Fort Valley and a hand full of friends.
Laughing and learning,
then passing somehow,
Hugging our friends
in our caps and our gowns.
Never thinking
this day would come,
now it's here
and our new life has begun.
Just remember;
what's past is history,
what's present is now,
what's future is welcome
and will work out somehow.

2002-2003 Homecoming King and Queen

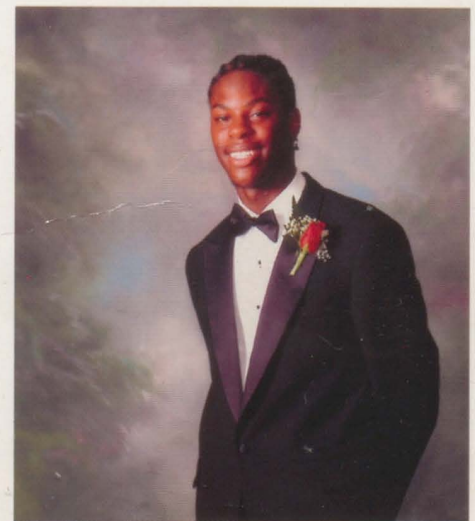

*The 2002-2003
Homecoming King and Queen*

*Homecoming Queen
Janesa Walker*

Each year, as homecoming approaches, the anticipation of crowning a new king and queen mounts. After weeks of stickers and posters, the moment comes. The crowd sits in silence as the past queen and king approach the field to crown the new king and queen. Finally it's announced, "The 2002 homecoming king and queen are ...Michael Johnson and Janesa Walker. PCHS would like to congratulate these two as well as the rest of the court for their hard work and dedication to PCHS school spirit.

Dedication

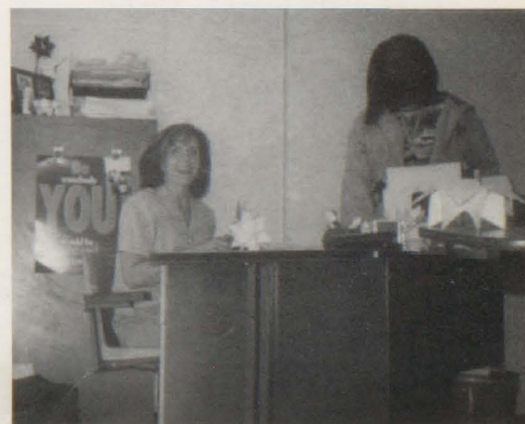

Mrs. Johnston

Each year, the graduating class is asked to choose a faculty or staff member that has made an impact on their lives. The votes were tallied, and the yearbook dedication goes to Mrs. Jane Johnston. Not only did the students choose her, but the staff did also. Mrs. Johnston is the high school's teacher of the year, and she won the countywide teacher of the year also.

Mrs. Johnston is a native of the northeast Georgia mountains. She was born and raised in Cornelia, Georgia and graduated from Habersham Central High School in 1988. After high school, she attended North Georgia College and University on a basketball scholarship. While there, she earned a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Mathematics Education degree. Mrs. Johnston taught at her alma mater for nine years before coming to Peach County in 2001.

Mrs. Johnston is married to Skip Johnston and together they have two sons: Caden who is six and Conner who is four. She loves mathematics and developing positive work habits in all of her students. She reminds them daily to "Be a Champion in all that you do" and "Don't forget to pack your suitcase."

Mrs. Johnston, this is the senior class way of saying thanks for all that you do, thanks for being a great mentor, and thanks for making a difference in the lives of so many students.

Little girls are gifts from God to be nurtured, treasured, and loved until our hopes and dreams for them come true.

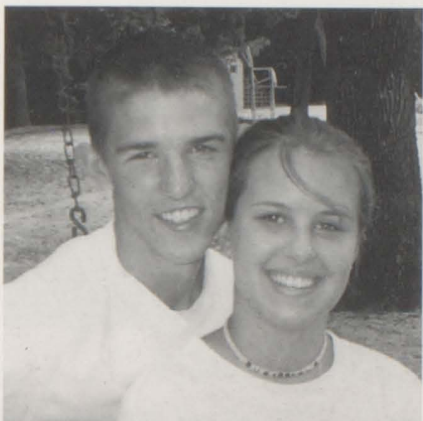

Eighteen years ago you came in our world and everything in our lives changed forever. You have become everything I could ever hope for in a daughter. I have truly been blessed to be your Mother. Your Daddy would be very proud of you.

"There are two bequests we can give our children: One is roots.

The other is wings."

When you arrived in our lives we thought you were the most wonderful gift a family could receive.

Now that we have watched you grow
and mature into a young woman,

we know that you are Wherever your life should lead .
We will always be there for you.

Shaun & Melissa

It's hard to believe you are seniors and that you will be "out of the house" next year! It was easier to let go of Scott because we still had both of you there for entertainment. You will have to forgive us for being teary or sentimental when that time arrives. How many times have you heard me say "All I want is a clean house?" I now realize that clean also means quiet and lonely. You have both always made us very proud. And we know that you will continue to do so as you begin this next stage in your lives. Know that we love you and we will always be here for you.

Love,

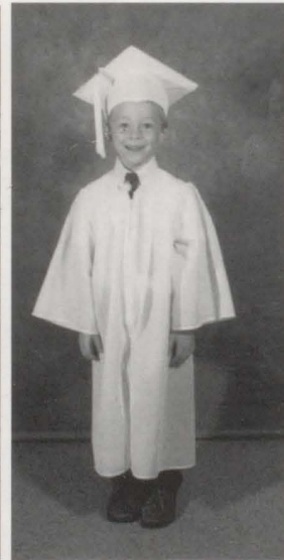

Mom, Glenn, and Emily

Shatoria,
You have grown to be an intelligent and beautiful daughter within these years. As you take on this next step in your life, you'll have our pride and support to carry with you. We have confidence that you will succeed in anything you try.

We love you always,
Mommy and Robert

Through the years your goal in life has changed from a postman to a baseball player to a musician, graduating from high school is the first step in your goal. No matter what your final goal will be, remember your family will always be there for you.

We love you and are very proud of all your accomplishments and the person you have become.

Love,

Mamma, Daddy, Megan, Kelsey, & Papa

*Best Wishes to

God bless you and remember to be successful in life. You must not give up on your dreams. Stay the way you are, loving and kind. I love you.

Your best friend,

Katharyn Malissa Waldrep

17 years ago, God blessed us with a hardheaded bundle of joy. We have watched you grow and become a beautiful, sensitive, and loving lady. We have laughed, cried and sometimes gotten mad at each other. As those years come to a close, we are sad about losing our little girl and at the same time, we look forward to sharing new and different experiences with you as a young woman. We're proud of your accomplishments, but most of all we are proud of the mature person you are today. We'll always cherish our memories of the happy, redheaded, baby girl, but it's time to look to the future and wish you all the best As always, we pledge our unconditional love.

We Will Love You Always,
Daddy, Mama, and Doug

Sean David Plumstead

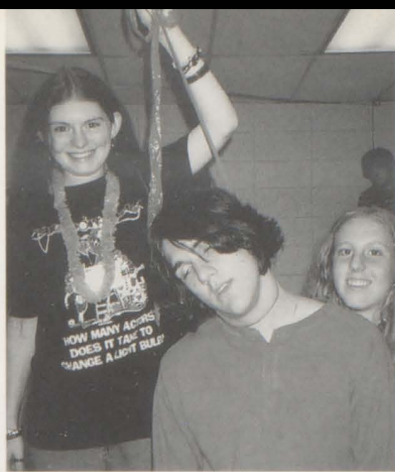

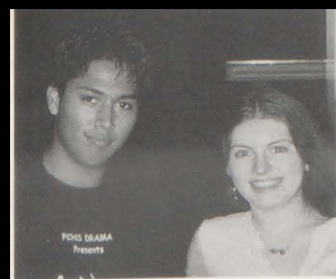

We are so proud of the artistic and compassionate young man you have become. What a joy it has been watching you grow from a beautiful baby boy into a handsome young man. Use these gifts God has given you to make all your dreams come true. Always remember that if you follow that big heart of yours and put God first, the world will be yours. It is a blessing to have you for a son, and never forget that your family is here whenever you need us.

We Love You !

Mom, Dad, and Ashley

you are true to you. We are so proud to call you our daughter.

 "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11 NIV

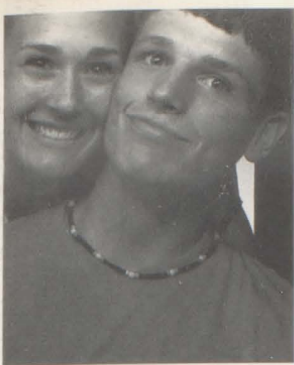

Your graduation is just the start of God's great plan for you. So trust in him to be your guide as you follow Him each day. He'll help you over your obstacles, and His love will light your way.

Men in Black

Shannon,

Without a doubt you have been a source of joy and blessing to our family. Most babies begin life crying. You, however, were born smiling & giggling. Your giggling & laughter & beautiful smiles have blessed our home since the day you arrived. Your laughter made grey skies blue and turned frowns into smiles. Watching you mature into a young woman has been a joy for our family. As you successfully complete one phase of your life & begin a new journey, we are confident in your abilities to take you far in life. Know that we are very proud of you and we will always be here for you.

Love you so much,
Mom & Dad

Deanna Askins

As time passed on, I've grown up. I've seen things and done things I never thought I would. But I've always been beautiful, and I will always be Deanna.

Family and friends change you so much. They force you to grow, but want to keep you young. They keep a smile on your face when it is raining. I'll always be thankful for them.

2003

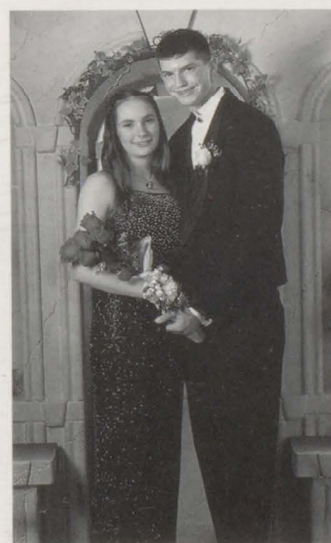

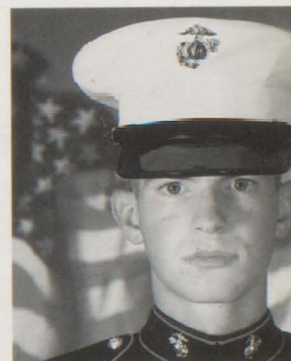

Danielle,

Even though you came to us over two months too early and only weighed 4 lbs on October 21, 1984, you were still all that we expected. God had given us our very own "angel" to love. Your dad and I have really enjoyed being your parents. We could not have asked for a better daughter than what you have given to us. Your dad first looked at you, and all he could say was "that's my 'bump'." So that's how your nickname stuck with you. We will always remember when you got your first teeth, especially your dad, being you tried them out on his ear. We have had eighteen wonderful years loving you, and we will until eternity and more. All our love!

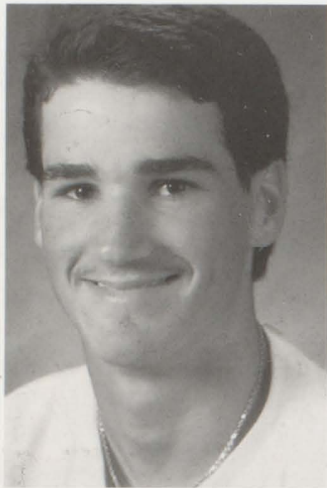

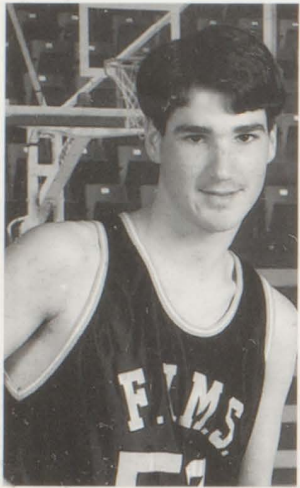

Mom and Dad

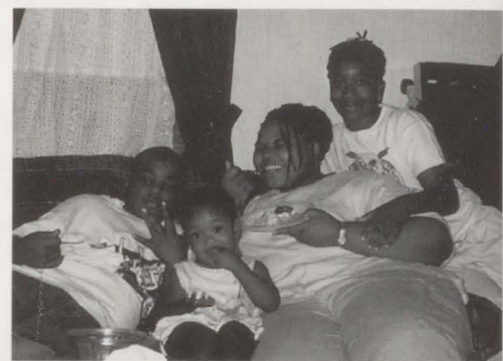

Congratulations Daniel Keith Morgan!

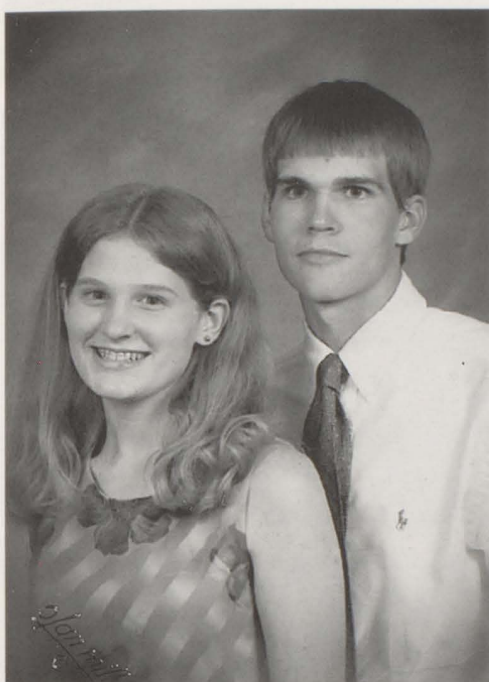

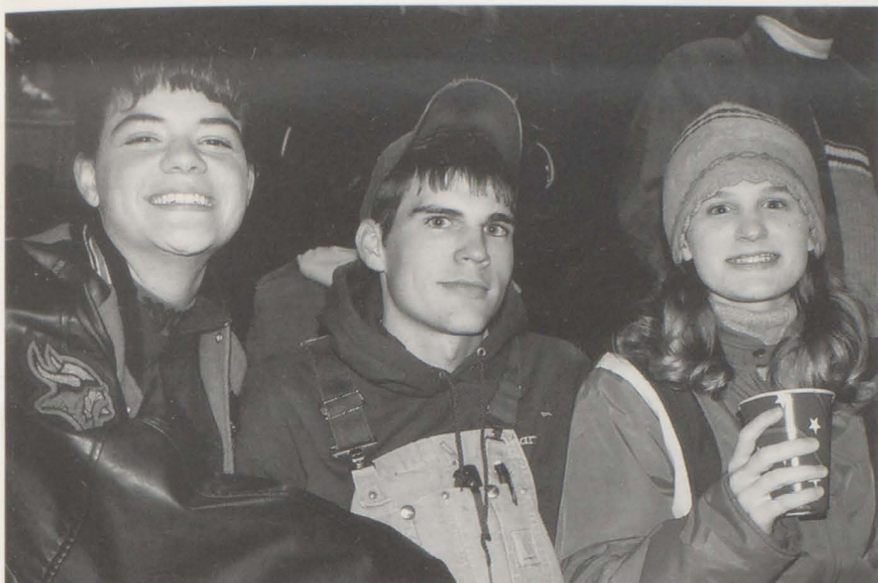

You are such a blessing to this family! You have always been such a compassionate and loving child. God gave you the biggest heart! Stay true to that! Know that you are loved unconditionally. Know that you are treasured as a son...loved and admired as a brother. Always, always wait on God's guidance & doors will open for you. Just know that we are so very proud of you & what you stand for. You are a wonderful "son"!

With all of our love and prayers for you, We love you Daniel "son," Momma, Daddy, Rhonda, and Morgan

JENNY NICHOLE SMITH

Congratulations. We are wishing you the best. Always remember look to God for answers, He is always there. You have grown from a beautiful baby to a beautiful young lady. We love you so much!

Mom, Vince, Dad, Laura, Ashley, Cliff and Hunter

Monica,
You are our first born. On October 20, 1984, God blessed us with a "Sweet Angel." We have always showered you with lots of love and you have given us lots of love in return. You have grown into a beautiful young lady and we are so very proud of you. As you move out from under our wings and approach life on your own, remember your family values and how much we love you with all our hearts. Dream high baby and always be all that you can be.

Congratulations! We love you!

Jessica Lynn Harris,
This has been a most challenging eighteen years! You have finally made it, and we are so proud of you. You have grown to be an outstanding young lady. You are about to start a new life, and we know this is what you have been waiting for. Your independence and determination will take you far. Remember to believe in yourself and always stay true to yourself. Keep God first in your life for he will direct your path. We wish you the best of luck in all that you do.

*Love,
 Mom, Dad, and Grandma*

I Sean Dwitt Miller the 1st 2nd 3rd (there is on 4th) being of great mind fabulous body & looks leave behind the following: First thanks to god for allowing me to live the wonderful and sometimes terrible life of mine. Now that I have gotten that out of the way I can leave nothing behind but a legacy that was started before I was even in high school. The F.A.M.: Makivoi, Black, Scos, Z, and Lei. These people started it all I don't think that I would be the person I am today without some of these people. Well this is how I was to be the person that I am today. Idd like to thank my boy makivoi for teaching me there is nothing wrong about being yourself, Black for teaching me stand tall and don't back down, Lei for teaching me theres nothing wrong with seeing highly in your self be cocky and confident, Z for teaching me if you think you are better prove it be strong. I took all these things I was taught and I became the perfectly imperfect person that I am today. The one and only Reeqo Star, I am the youngest of the first generation the oldest of the second generation the king of the second generation. I would like to think with these FAM members along with a few more. Flipmode, Froster, Marlo, Tiko jones, El Cullisimo, Smallville. I hope to have helped leave behind a legacy of better than average people. I hope that we taught something to these students even though we are the creams of the crop I hope we all can look behind and say we tried. Dedication to the FAM THANKS. As I leave this school im glad to have lived throughout some of the things I have been through, and to have seen some of the things I saw. J-Dubb whitehead im glad to see you ballin, Bump-man glad to see you help me get started on my dream and I hope you achieve yours, Dave thanks for the rides to and from school Hope your son grows to be as real of a person as his dad. R. we have had our bad blood but get ya mind right.. There are to many things to name and to many folks to thank. Well to people who don't know me I am a rapper/poet martial artist. I am a pretty-boy 50%cocky 50%narcistic but hey 100% real me. The realese person in this school honest and true .yall haters cant stop me . Iam Sean Miller a.k.a. Reeqo Star a.k.a. The Great SM a.k.a. The King of Hearts. FAM Forever Duce's!
